LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair and colder tonight. Friday, fair.

Mrs. Oscar Liffing, wife of the general merchant at Sabinal, is in the city, the guest of friends.

The rain of the last two days registers a total precipitation of 35-100ths of an inch, and the rain was wet.

Col. W. M. Berger, secretary of the Belen Town and Improvement company, is here today on business.

Mrs. M. R. Otero and Mrs. I. L. Noland went to Los Lunas last night to be guests of Mrs. Solomon Luna.

A. A. Henry has accepted the night management of the Graham Bros. saloon, and entered upon his duties.

Miss Beale and Kenneth Baldrige returned home this morning from an eight weeks' sojourn with friends in Los Angeles.

Mrs. E. J. Wilson and son, family of one of the local representatives of the Armour Packing company, arrived last night from Pueblo, Colo.

Walter O'Brien, the inspector of the territorial cattle sanitary board, who was here on business the past few days, returned to Las Vegas last night.

Bert W. Bryant and A. V. Tegner were initiated into the Elks at last night's meeting. A large number of the initiated tribe were present to take part in the fun.

Mrs. G. C. Hudson and two daughters, family of the Santa Fe section foreman at Laguna, returned west last night, after being here the past couple of days.

Prof. Clinton J. Crandall, superintendent of the government Indian school at Santa Fe, and who was here on official matters, has returned to the territorial capital.

The social which was to have been given by the Eastern Star ladies at the residence of Mrs. A. Everett, on Friday evening, has been postponed on account of the weather.

A. W. Anson, the contractor and builder, left last night for Los Angeles, on a combined business and pleasure trip. Mr. Anson expects to be absent from the city a couple of weeks.

W. J. Cardwell, who was at Santa Fe, yesterday, on business connected with the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance company, of Newark, N. J., returned to the city last night.

James Bingham and Tony Ortiz will leave in a boat, Saturday morning, on a cruise down the Rio Grande as far as San Marcial. They are after ducks and expect to be absent several weeks.

Mr. Mirabel, a well known sheep raiser of San Rafael, Valencia county, today purchased the Whitten residence at the corner of Copper avenue and Fifth street. Consideration private.

Mrs. E. A. Kelly, of Leavenworth, Kan., who stopped over a day or two to visit her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Kelly, at Las Vegas, passed through the city for southern California last night.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, of the City of Mexico, who was here a month with her sister, Mrs. R. F. Asplund, left this afternoon on the flyer for Los Angeles, where she expects to spend the winter.

The well known lecturer, Robert McIntyre, reached the city on the No. 2 passenger train from the west today and will lecture at the Lead Avenue Methodist church tonight on the subject of "Abraham Lincoln."

Yesterday afternoon Miss Elsie Kempenich, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Kempenich, gave a party to a large number of her young associates, at the home of her parents, No. 918 West Railroad avenue.

E. Maharam, who has a general store at the corner of Railroad avenue and Twelfth street, is enjoying a visit from his father, Rabbi M. Maharam, of Philadelphia, who arrived this morning from California. Rabbi Maharam is an orthodox Jew.

Mrs. Alice Hayward, of 120 South Arno street, was at home last evening to the ladies and veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic. A New England supper of doughnuts, maple syrup and coffee was served. An interesting musical program was rendered.

W. H. Hulvey, of Chicago, who was here the other day and left for Bluewater, returned to the city last night, bringing in with him witnesses who will give evidence before Judge Ellsworth Ingalls in a depredation case, of the Latta heirs against the government, for losses sustained by the Indians some twenty odd years ago.

Special pre-Thanksgiving services will be held at Temple Albert Friday evening at 7:45. Throughout the country will be celebrated by appropriate services the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of the Jews in the United States. Mr. George S. Klock, the well known attorney and able and eloquent speaker, will deliver an address. Rabbi Kaplan will also speak, giving a sketch of Jewish activity in the United States, showing "What the United States have done for the Jews, and what the Jews have done for the United States. Everybody is cordially welcome.

By reference to a local advertisement published elsewhere in the Citizen, it will be seen that Madam Gross, late of New York city, will open on December 1, a ladies' tailoring establishment in the Armijo building, corner of Railroad avenue and Third street, occupying room 26. The lady comes to the city highly recommended.

The special council committee on social evil, appointed at Monday night's meeting, will meet as soon as Councilman Liffing, one of the members, returns to the city. Notices will be published in the daily papers, and an invitation extended to all those who have suggestions and views to make to the committee on the social evil question.

R. C. Spooner, superintendent of the Indian warehouse at Chicago, is in the city the guest of James K. Allen, superintendent of the local Indian school. Mr. Spooner is a brother of Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, and is presumably here for the purpose of investigating the advisability of rebuilding the warehouse which was recently burned at the local school.

A delegation of clerks, members of the Retail Clerks' union, called on the manager of the Globe store relative to closing his place of business at 6 o'clock p. m., and not "16 o'clock," as announced in the Morning Journal. After listening to the clerks' appeal, Mr. Rice consented, stating that he would close the Globe store at 6 o'clock every evening, except Saturdays and pay days.

An immense crowd was out to Colomby hall last night to hear the lecture of Walter Thomas Mills, the socialist lecturer, regardless of the inclemency of the weather. Mr. Mills took the liberty to score Albuquerque on the social evil question, as well as some very unquestionably strong arguments on the growth of socialism in the United States. The lecture will continue throughout the week, instead of two nights, as was at first announced.

W. B. Yeary, a prominent banker and newspaper man of Farmville, Collins county, Texas, is spending a few days in Albuquerque, transacting business of a legal nature. Mr. Yeary is from the black land belt of Texas near the Indian Territory line. When asked what he thought about the prospects for sheepherders in the territories, Mr. Yeary said that he didn't know. There is so much politics mixed up in the proposition that there is no telling what the territories would get.

Robert McIntyre will lecture at the Methodist church this evening on "Abraham Lincoln." All parts of the public schools and mission schools will be admitted for twenty-five cents.

HESSLELDEN WILL COMPLETE BLACK ROCK SCHOOLS

Contractor Wallace Hesselnden has secured the contract for the completion of several school buildings at the Black Rock agency, Ariz., which were left half finished by a contractor who fell down on the job, and Mr. Hesselnden left last night for Black Rock, with a crew of workmen to take up the work where the other contractor left off. Mr. Hesselnden's bid was $6,000, which is considered a very good price for the work yet to be done. The work is expected to require several months even though a large force of men be employed at it.
